OF THE ORIGIN OF THE PERSECUTION OF THE JEWS IN RUSSIA, AND AMONG OTHER THINGS SAYS:In March, 1879, nine Jews in Russia were brought up for trial in the Caucasus on charge of having slain a Christian child and dipped its blood for Passover. This same lad was revived simultaneously in several districts, invariably leading to riot, pillage and murder.
From that time to the present 100,000 Jewish families in Russia have been reduced to homelessness, beggary, and $300,000 worth of property has been destroyed. Men have been cruelly murdered, women brutally outraged, children dashed to pieces or burnt alive in their homes.
Such has been the result of the recent Jewish persecution, and thousands of these unfortunate people have become exiles from the land of their birth.THE NUHISTS HAVE ADDRESSED A HIGHLY RHETORICAL LETTER TO THESE PRE-SENTED ISRAELITES, IN WHICH THEY SAY:Like the rods which are used to carry off the lightning, you have been chosen to draw the electric current which was to have struck the poles. The Russian people feel the misery which oppresses them, and you are made to suffer in order that they may see that there are beings still more miserable than themselves.* * * When they complained of the oppression heaped upon them daily, the injustice, bribery, robbery, rapes, breaking up of families, by the government officials, high and low, permission was given to the common people to act likewise toward them, and thus cool their passion.All this has been done by the consent and with the knowledge of him who is styled the "Father of his people," whose real name is—"Father of lies and deceit," and he can not say to his children: "You complain of your misfortunes. Look at the misfortunes of the Jews, and you will or ought to value your happy condition. Are you dissatisfied?" Again look at the Jews, and your dissatisfaction will or should turn to contentment. Do not listen to the fair promises of the revolutionists about "equality" or "humanity;" and I, the father of lies, will give you equal freedom to rob, murder and satisfy your lusts, assuring you that the Devil will not interfere with but rather encourage you, and if powerless, the soldiers and police will aid you, and in the end will be rewarded."CIVIL-SERVICE reformers in this country who are disgusted because there is so much office-seeking among our politicians, will be glad to know that statistics of population compared with representatives in the legislative bodies of the leading countries of the world show that the United States, with the largest population, has the smallest number of legislators. For her nearly 50,000,000 of people she has 369 senators and members of congress, while the figures for European nations are these: Germany, 45,000,000 and 397 delegates; England, 34,000,000 and 658 members of parliament; France, 36,000,000 and 550 representatives and senators; Spain, 17,000,000 and 387 Deputies in the Cortes; and Austria-Hungary, 33,000,000 and 1,069 members in the two houses.—Chicago Journal.BUFFALO, May 18.—R. Porter Lee, president of the defunct First National Bank, was again arrested on complaint of Receiver Smith and on the oath of Linus M. Price and the cashier of the Farmers' and Mechanics' Bank, Buffalo, and E. T. Smith receiver. The sum is to recover $200,000 belonging to the depositors of the bank. Bail was fixed at $100,000. Bail being not forthcoming, he was committed to jail.PROCEEDINGS OF THE BOARD OF SUPERVISORS.

Special Meeting.

The Board of Supervisors of Macon county adjourned to a call of one-third of the members thereof, for the transaction of county business, at the court house, in the city of Decatur, in said county, on Wednesday, the 16th day of May, 1882.Present—H. W. Waggoner, Clerk; W.
W. Foster, Sheriff.

Court opened by proclamation.

The Board was called to order by the clerk, when the following Supervisors, comprising the Board for the coming year, answered to their names, and presented their credentials and took their seats: A.
T. Hill, Joe Michl, B. O. McNeelys, John Freeman, Decatur; John R. Hunt, Hickory Point; H. N. Clark, Granite; W.
J. Evans, Pleasant View; W. H. Holt, Her-kiswood; J. Johnson, Austin; S. M.
Mackie, Zion; C. H. Geier, Whitmore; M. P. Funk, Morse; H. Manecke, Oakley; J. S. Childs, Elgin; H. H. Rosen-grants, Blue Mound; Hiram Ward, South Westland; C. A. Turner, South Macon; H. A. Van Leer, Friends' Creek; S. C.
Davis, Long Creek.

Absent—John Van Gundy, of Milam.

It now being in order for the election of a chairman of the Board for the coming year, Sup'r Garver nominated A. T. Hill, of Decatur. There being no other nomination, he was elected by acclamation, and on taking the chair, in a short and appropriate address, thanked the members for the honor thus bestowed and their confidence in his ability to preside over their deliberations the coming year.The special committee on the preparing of plans and specifications and contracting for the building of the new poor house, made the following report, which was received and ordered to be recorded and placed on file:To the Hon. Board of Supervisors of Macon County, Ill.:Gentlemen.—Yours, to whom was referred the resolution of Sup'r Van Leer,That the matter of building the county poor house be referred to the special committee with power to act to have specifications drawn, advertise for bids and proceed to have the building erected at a cost not to exceed ten thousand dollars, would that they have had the specifications drawn by Mr. Butland, an architect from Springfield, of the plan which was recommended by the committee and approved by the board, a committee, and have also advertised in the three Decatur papers, daily and weekly, for the erection of the building, bids to be for the entire building, and also for the different parts of the work, giving an opportunity for the different mechanics to bid on their work. After several meetings of the committee we are compelled to report to the board that the amount of the appropriation is insufficient to erect such a building as is desired. When labor and material were lower the insane house, which was burned and which was of wood, cost $200. The size of same was 30x57 feet, with the house contemplated by the architect of a main building 30x57 feet, with two wings each 20x57 feet, either of the wings being less than the old insane house, and since the passage of the resolution prices have advanced both in labor and material. Looking forward to the future wants of the county your committee do not see how the size of the building can be diminished. It is our opinion that the building cannot be erected for a less sum than $15,000, which would not include the full cost of heating. In looking over the records we find an allowance of $130.75 for extra work on the insane building and no provisions made for heating same, which was all additional expense. The amount of main house money on hand is $7,500.00, and there is a surplus in the treasury of about $100.00 from last year. For reasonable and your committee would recommend that the resolutions limiting the amount to ten thousand dollars be rescinded. All of which was respectfully submitted. JAMES FREEMAN, J. N. HOYT,
HIRAM WARD,
CHAR. A. TURNER,
H. C. MOWRY,
A. T. HILL.

Committee.

Sup'r Freeman offered the following, which was adopted:Resolved, That the resolution adopted by the board at their March meeting, authorizing the special committee to have specifications drawn, advertise for bids and proceed to have a new building erected upon the poor farm, at a cost not to exceed ten thousand dollars, be rescinded.Sup'r Clark offered the following, which was adopted:Resolved, That the special committee appointed at the March meeting of this board to procure plans and specifications and contract for the erection of a new poor house, now proceed to enter into a contract with some responsible and reliable party or parties for the erection of a good and substantial building according to the plans now laid before this board, at as low and economical a sum as possible.H. C. Mowry, supervisor from Hickory Point, and one of the special building committee, asked the board to be relieved from further services on said committee.

The request of Mr. Mowry was granted.

On motion of Sup'r. Mowry being relieved from serving upon the special building committee he filled by the chair appointing his successor, which motion was not entertained by the board.On motion of Sup'r. Van Leer that the board now adjourn until the 1st Tuesday in June, at half past one o'clock p.m.

H. W. WAGGONER, Clerk.

North Carolina Hospitality.

WISCONSIN, ILL., May 19.—Gen. Grant, in a letter to Col. W. R. Bowley, of this city, has signified his intention of paying Galena a visit during the forepart of next month. He will be accompanied by Mrs.
Grant.

Nothing has been heard of her.

The police have instituted inquiries, but without avail, and are inclined to believe that it is a case of abduction. Miss Zoe's brother, who is a leather merchant in Denver, has been telegraphed to, and is expected here.

New York, May 19.—The stock market to-day continued dull, and again, after many fluctuations, closed a fraction lower.At the very opening there was but a brief spark of activity at opening prices, but afterward the trading was entirely between the room speculators. If any of the large operators had designed a new movement they seemed to have postponed it quickly. What strength the general market had was caused mainly by the fact that no engagements of specie for shipment to-morrow were made, and a small amount engaged yesterday was withdrawn.There was little confidence, however, that the outflow had ceased, because of the condition of the country's financial accounts, and, perhaps, still more because Europe is not buying American securities. On the contrary, what little business Europe is doing in our securities is selling, rather than buying. At the same time, the room traders seem to think to-day that if there were to be no shipments of gold to-morrow stocks would be a good purchase for a quick turn. In consequence of this there was a sharp rally in the last hour, but it was not sustained to the end.The closing figures were higher than the lowest but generally they were a fraction below the last prices yesterday.BLOOMINGTON, May 19.—Blomington detectives arrived home thismorning from St. Louis, where they visited the jail and interviewed the man Gaylord, whom it was supposed was Harry Williams, the accomplice of Patsey Devine, the murderer of Aaron Goodfellow. They were unanimous in the opinion that he was not the man. It is now thought that Williams is somewhere in Texas.There is some talk in political circles of this city about bringing out Hon. A. E. Stevenson, ex-member of Congress of the Thirteenth District, as a Democratic candidate for the United States Senate to succeed Senator David Davis.

The democratic intention to make a southern confederacy out of Missouri, in spite of the results of thewar, is ably seconded in many directions.

Three things have happened recently to help the thing along: first, the democratic disapproval of the capture of Jesse James; secondly, the Broadhead letter advising the discontinuance of Union celebrations; and thirdly, the speech of Dr. Laws, of the state university, extolling the rebel cause and comparing Robert E. Lee with George Washington.

And yet people wonder why immigrants no not come into Missouri.

DROWNED BY HIS MASTER.

Heroic Effort Made by Two Dogs to Save a Suicide.

From the Philadelphia Times.

A number of children playing on Noble street wharf yesterday noticed a middle aged man walking up and down the edge of the pier, waving his arms and talking to himself. At the man's heels walked two dogs, a Newfoundland and a Scotch terrier. A few minutes later the man jumped overboard, and the dogs followed and endeavored to save him. The children notified the police and a crowd gathered at the wharf, but the man had sunk. The dogs were swimming around, whining piteously. A boatman took the dogs out of the water and placed them on the dock, but the terrier instantly jumped into the water again and resisted all attempts to take him out. The dog then swam around yelping and whining for nearly three-quarters of an hour, until he was sucked under a ship and drowned. A number of watermen dragged for the drowned man's body until dark, but the search was not successful. It is supposed that the tide carried the body under the ship that is moored at the pier. The children who saw the man jump say he had a gray beard and gray hair, but further than that they were unable to give any description of the stranger.

DIGGING had been commenced for the tunnel that is to unite France and England. It has now been stopped. Public opinion ran against it. The popular mind became greatly excited in regard to it. They fancied that they might wake up some fine morning and find both ends of the tunnel in the hands of a foreign foe, and troops pouring in to eat the blustered little island up. So strong was the feeling that work had to be abandoned. Altogether it is a funny row, and illustrates in a remarkable manner the popular sentiment in England.
